

A photograph of a modern interior display featuring a white shelving unit against a grey wall. The shelves are filled with various objects including framed abstract art, a large copper bowl, a red book titled 'PHILIP JOHNSON', a large terracotta sphere, a yellow teapot, a white vase, a small orange chair, a wooden teapot, a red book with black polka dots, a black candle holder with a red candle, a large orange sphere, a white vase, a small white clock, a small white chair, a large red bowl, a small wooden teapot, and a large white vase. The objects are arranged in a curated, artistic manner.

The optimism of summer is here, and we're continuing to celebrate softer, rounded shapes and curves in everything from furniture to rugs. Whether it be Kristina Dam's Curved Tables or eye-catching Wavy Rugs from An Aesthetic Pursuit, we're excited to expand our partnerships with designers across the globe. Inventive lighting from the Spanish firm Marset, Sean Lavin's cutting-edge designs for Tech Lighting, and the Danish firm Woud are illuminating both artistic and technical innovations in our rapidly expanding assortment. From the whimsical tabletop accessories of Paola C to the geometric shapes of Pieces Planters, we're welcoming color, bolder forms, and inspiring artistry into our collections this season.
