

MillerKnoll Honored by the Women's Forum of New York for Active Leadership to Attain Gender Parity on its Corporate Board

MillerKnoll recognized for notable achievement with 45 percent female board representation

ZEELAND, Mich. – November 10, 2021 – Today it was announced that MillerKnoll (NASDAQ: MLKN) is being honored by the Women's Forum of New York at its sixth biennial "Breakfast of Corporate Champions" (BCC) event. MillerKnoll, with representation of 45 percent women on their board, is recognized as a corporate game-changer for promoting women's leadership in the boardroom.

"It is an honor to be recognized alongside this group of extraordinary companies who share our commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion," said Andi Owen, CEO of MillerKnoll. "We have always believed that diversity is one of our greatest competitive advantages and we have taken deliberate action to increase representation within our board of directors and across our organization. MillerKnoll is committed to designing a more sustainable, equitable, and beautiful future for everyone."

For 2021, the Women's Forum will salute the 243 companies from the S&P 500 and FORTUNE 1000 that have achieved 35 percent or more female representation on their corporate boards. All "Corporate Champion" honored companies from 2011 to 2021 have exceeded the national average of board seats held by women (source: BoardEx, June 2021). The Women's Forum recognizes the critical role MillerKnoll's leaders have had in accelerating change to help make gender equity a business priority, and for driving intent to action.

"We salute MillerKnoll for their impressive success to achieve greater gender balance in their corporate boardroom," said BCC Founder and Chair, Janice Reals Ellig, CEO, The Ellig Group. "As part of the Women's Forum of New York's ongoing 'Corporate Board Initiative,' we're proud to honor MillerKnoll as an important member of the 2021 class of Corporate Champions who are determined to lead the way."

The Women's Forum "Corporate Board Initiative" reflects the organization's belief that change happens more quickly when it's driven from the top. The initiative focuses on company leadership, including CEOs, Directors, and Nominating and Governing Chairs, working to advance the appointment of women with the overarching goal to achieve gender parity on corporate boards.

The BCC Honorary Co-Chairs are Kenneth C. Frazier, Executive Chairman of the Board, Merck & Co., Inc. and Maggie Wilderotter, Chairman and CEO, Grand Reserve Inn. The President of the Women's Forum is Joan Haffenreffer, Chief Administrative Officer and Managing Director, Citi Global Public Affairs.
